

Commercial Rewards Card

Streamline payments and gain greater control over expenses and travel with one simple solution.

More than a way to pay, the Commercial Rewards Card offers a versatile all-in-one card, expense and travel management solution. It's ideal for organizations that need more than a small business card to improve efficiency and manage growth but want a customizable solution that delivers simplicity and savings.

A modern spend management solution

By integrating card payments, expense management and travel using the powerful and intuitive Elan NextView™ platform, the Commercial Rewards Card makes your payments process more productive:

- Improve working capital management by paying invoices with a card to extend payment terms and maintain greater liquidity.
- Enable seamless integration of Commercial Rewards Card transaction data with QuickBooks® Online and NetSuite through APIs or use file exports to upload data into other finance systems.
- Automate travel and purchasing expense submission, tailor the approval process and rules to your organization, and simplify reconciliation.
- Enhance control with customized expense and travel policies and specific spend limits, cash access and category controls at the individual card level.
- Increase spend visibility with real-time insights, detailed reports and dashboard analytics.

With a straightforward application, no personal guarantee and streamlined digital onboarding, the Commercial Rewards Card is one of the easiest ways to upgrade your commercial card.

Key benefits

Simplicity: Streamline card administration, expense management, travel booking and approvals through a single, straightforward interface.

Easy spend management: Card transactions flow directly into the NextView platform, simplifying expense submissions and approvals for employees and reconciliation for finance.

Savings: Choose rebates with a lower spend threshold than many commercial cards or earn points, plus reduced travel costs with negotiated rates when booking in the platform – without an annual fee.

